Charity No - 701365

CASBA has provided specialist independent advocacy for adults with Learning Disabilities since 1988. Working within the guidelines of the National Advocacy Charter.

An Advocate:

- Is on your side
- Thinks what you say is important
- Will explain things to you
- Will make sure others listen to you
- Will ask what you want
- Will tell others what you want if you cannot

Our aim:

This Project aims to ensure parents with a learning disability and their children receive the right support during pregnancy and as new parents.

We can help you if you are:

- 18 years old and over
- Have a learning disability
- Live in South Birmingham
- Are pregnant or a new mom

Referral forms are available from our Website

We can help you :

- Go to medical appointments

- Explain things to you

- Support you to prepare for the arrival of your baby

- Find other services that will help

- Introduce you to other parents with a learning disability.

- Help you to read/understand information and fill in forms
